Lenten Reflection: The Temple of Christ’s Body

In the 6th century B.C., the Jews were in exile. God sent the prophet Ezekiel who, in a vision, was transported to Jerusalem. He saw the restored temple in all its glory. On the right side of the temple, water flowed into a river. God promised that all that the water touches will live.

This prefigures the true temple — the Body of Christ. At the Crucifixion, water flowed from the right side of Jesus’ body. The water of life. All of us who were touched by this water in Baptism have become temples of the Holy Spirit. Let us live accordingly.
