A Reflection on the Nativity of St. John the Baptist
by Br. Paul Kallal, OMV

A wise man once said to me, “You will always need John the Baptist in your life.” At first, I was confused by his advice, and I must confess, it took me a few years to understand what he meant. If I am going to be truly honest, I must admit that I am still pondering his advice. However, I think I have some idea as to what this wise man was referring to.

This weekend, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. To begin to understand why we need to focus on John, we must first begin with his name. The Greek word for John, Yehohanan, translates as “Yahweh has shown favor.” Through the birth of John, God first shows favor to his parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth. Elderly and childless, this couple, and in particular Elizabeth, was stigmatized as being both barren and unfavorable in the eyes of the Lord. However, with the birth of their son, God’s grace and mercy is manifested. God is now seen as a God who fulfills His promises and looks with favor on the lowly. In response, Zechariah joyfully praises God by singing, “In the tender compassion of our God, the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

Secondly, God uses John the Baptist to show favor to Israel by giving him a vital mission in the economy of salvation. Each of the Gospels reinforces the Baptist’s role in God’s plan of salvation. St. Luke writes that the word of God came to John in the wilderness and stirred him to preach a baptism of repentance and forgiveness of sins. St. Mark highlights that John is the fulfillment of Isaiah’s prophecy, hence John is the messenger shouting from the desert, preparing a road for Jesus. St. Matthew recalls that the Baptist is the greatest of those born of women and that he prepared a way for the Lord. Lastly, St. John, who portrays Jesus as the light, reveals that John came to give testimony the light so that all might believe in Him. Thus, the Gospels highlight that John the Baptist remains true to his namesake. In being favored by God, the Baptist receives the vital mission of being the last prophet and therefore preparing Israel for the salvific mission of Christ.

When we pray about the life and mission of John the Baptist, we first of all become aware of the ways in which God -- Father, Son, and Holy Spirit -- has favored each one of us. Sometimes, life’s struggles and sorrows keep us from being aware of this knowledge. In these moments, John the Baptist reminds us to refocus our gaze on Christ and in return we will see that Christ’s gaze is focused on us. Christ’s gaze alone is proof of his favor. With this realization, we can confidently imitate the Baptist and prepare the way for the Lord in both our own lives and the vocations God has called each of us to, especially in our families and workplaces. On this great Solemnity, I pray that each of you realize how much God loves you and how much he has favored you throughout your life. I also pray that through the intercession of John the Baptist, you can confidently and without fear, prepare others to receive Jesus Christ in the numerous ways He is inviting you to be His disciple. Therefore, may the Lord continue to bless, heal, keep, and protect you. May He let His radiant face shine upon you today, tomorrow, and all the days of your life. Amen!
The Oblates of the Virgin Mary is an international religious community of priests and brothers serving in Italy, France, Austria, Argentina, Brazil, Canada, Nigeria, the United States and the Philippines. The Oblates are involved in retreat and parish missions, spiritual direction, parish work, the mass media, clergy formation, and the foreign missions.

The US Province of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary is dedicated to St. Ignatius of Loyola, and includes communities in Massachusetts, Illinois, Colorado, California and the Philippines.

The OMV US Province House is at St. Clement’s in Boston.

The OMV motto, “MARIAM COGITA, MARIAM INVoca” “Think of Mary, Call on Mary” is taken from a homily by St. Bernard.
