Spiritual thoughts from Venerable Bruno Lanteri, Founder of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary

Do not consider your prayers a burden; do not do to God and to yourselves the wrong of considering it fatiguing to deal with Him.

The Month of October is Dedicated to the Holy Rosary

“Immaculate Virgin, I know well that I am only a miserable wretch, and all I do is increase each day the number of my sins... “You told me the other day that was how you spoke to Our Mother.

And I was confident in advising you with assurance to say the Holy Rosary. Blessed be that monotony of Hail Marys which purifies the monotony of your sins!

— St. Josemaria Escriva
(Furrow, no. 475)

THE ROSARY by Joyce Kilmer

Shall all men praise the Master of all song.
Our life is brief, one saith, and art is long;
And skilled must be the laureates of kings.
Silent, O lips that utter foolish things!
Rest, awkward fingers striking all notes wrong!
How from your toil shall issue, white and strong,
Music like that God's chosen poet sings?

There is one harp that any hand can play,
And from its strings what harmonies arise!
There is one song that any mouth can say,—
A song that lingers when all singing dies.
When on their beads our Mother's children pray
Immortal music charms the grateful skies.

A Guidebook for Confession

This short guide, by Fr. Donal O. Cuilleanian, can help you transform your Confessions from empty or embarrassing routines into genuine occasions of divine grace. This booklet, which you can carry to the Confessional, contains a brief message from St. John Paul II on why Confession is so important and outlines the basic steps that make for a good Confession.
As a child, Francesco would put on puppet shows for other kids. With his mother, he would visit and help the poor and sick in his city.

She felt an early call to religious life, and would lead pilgrimages of other children to local Marian shrines.

He worked to rebuild after the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 1794, including rebuilding his church with his own hands.
