

From Rev. John Ferraro -Series of Meditations on the Rosary
Consideration: The Real Presence

“He who is all-knowing knew nothing more He could give us; He Who is all-powerful could not give us more than He did; He Who is richest of all had nothing more to give us.”- St. Augustine

“The Eucharist is the last word that the love of God could say to man...and God said it.” -Lacordaire

“The Eucharist is like a divine storehouse filled with every virtue; God has placed It in the world so that everyone may draw from it.”-St. John Eymard

“Even the vocation to the priesthood and religious life is born, develops, grows, and matures under the sun of the Eucharist.”-Blessed James Alberione

“Here on earth it is impossible to perform a more meritorious act than visiting Jesus often in the Eucharist.” -St. Theresa of Avila

“Every time you visit the Church for love of Me, My Heart draws you in an embrace of predilection.”-Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

“Let us receive every Communion with the same fervor we would have were it our last.” -St. John Baptist de LaSalle

“He does not descend from Heaven to remain in golden vessels, but to come into our souls.” - St. Therese of Lisieux

“He desires so greatly to come to us that waiting from one day to another seems long to Him.”-St. John Cafasso

“We do not go to Communion because we are good; we go to become good.”-St. John Bosco

“While you are going to receive Communion, imitate Mary’s disposition as she went to Bethlehem where Jesus was to be born.”-St. Julian Eymard
