

Jim Jessee

Jim Jessee retired in 2018 after a 30+ year career at MFS Investment Management. He and his wife of 40 years, Kim, have 5 children and 4 grandchildren. Jim splits his time between their home in the South End of Boston and Kiawah Island, SC.

Jim also serves on the regional board of Bottom Line (a non-profit organization helping public high school students, who are first generation in their family to go to college, navigate the complexities of the admissions process, and stay on a path towards earning a bachelor's degree).

He is also on the Invest In Others Charitable Foundation board, and a trustee of the Lanteri Charitable Trust which oversees the health and retirement funds of the Oblates of the Virgin Mary.
